

Thousands Of Refugees Are In Danger Of Perishing

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.—(Friday, by the Associated Press)—Wireless dispatches to the American embassy and reports received by The Associated Press from Smyrna, Saloniki, Rodosto and the islands of Mitylene and Chios show that thousands of refugees are in danger of perishing if assistance does not arrive promptly. Conservative estimates place the number of sufferers at four hundred thousand. A message from the American relief workers on the island of Mitylene says: "The situation is desperate."

Refugees crazed by hunger, are throwing themselves into the sea. There is no bread on island. Rush 800 tons of flour immediately. Three Americans are struggling to look after 150,000 refugees. Thirty thousand more refugees are expected today. A wireless message from Commander Halsey Powell, of American destroyer Edsall Smyrna, says: "Americans evacuated 31,000 (refugees) today. Total for two days, 74,000. Between 20,000 and 30,000 are in the immediate vicinity. "Expect more ships tomorrow."

At Saloniki the conditions are deplorable. The city has been in a state of chaos since the fire in 1918. It affords little more shelter than a cave. The local Greek police confesses its inability to cope with the tremendous influx of refugees. The announcement that the American navy department is sending a squadron of twelve destroyers to reinforce the eight destroyers now in the near east, was the most welcome news received by the Americans here since the beginning of the present anxious situation.

The warships will not only provide additional protection for American citizens and property, but also enable Rear Admiral Bristol to maintain ships for longer periods at refugee centers and to establish better communications.

WAR IN THE NEAR EAST SEEMS CERTAIN

SEVEN DIE DURING TENEMENT HOUSE FIRE

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Seven persons lost their lives in a fire which early today swept through a tenement house at 241 West 109th street, between Broadway and Amsterdam avenue. Nearly a score more were injured, several seriously and dozens of others were saved by firemen and volunteers who plunged through windows which had shut off escape for the twenty-four families.

The dead: Wilbur Fenn, 45, and his son, Wilbur Jr., 16; William Hummel, 16; Albert Hummel, 12; Harry Hoff, 45, and Irene and Flora Hoff, thought to be his daughters.

Three firemen were injured and half a dozen others overcome by smoke and heat.

The fire was brought under control after three hours of fighting during part of which the firemen were handicapped by the darkness of the street. Taxicabs and automobiles were parked nearby and their searchlights thrown on all sides of the building. Starting in the main hall on the ground floor, the fire quickly spread up the stairway, shutting off all escape except through the fire escapes and windows.

Police are investigating a story told by Harry Dent, a tenant in the building next door to the burned structure. Hearing a noise in the hall of his house just before retiring, Dent said he opened his door to discover a blazing bulb hanging. He and his daughter extinguished the blaze with buckets of water and were ready to enter his apartment, when a man came up from the basement and looked around the hall. Dent asked him what he wanted, and the man said he smelled smoke and had come to "look around." The "stranger" turned and left. Dent told the police. A few minutes later fire broke out in the apartment next door.

PART OF JUAREZ GARRISON REVOLTS

EL PASO, TEXAS, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Two Americans, citizens of El Paso, were slightly wounded on this side from stray bullets during the fighting, occasioned by the revolt of the garrison at Juarez. One was Miss Vicente Creer, 22, shot in the shoulder, and Luis Ponce, 19, a fruit peddler, whose clothing was torn by a bullet. He was only scratched.

EL PASO, TEXAS, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Part of the Juarez garrison revolted in the early hours today. They took the loyal federal troops completely by surprise, but after several clashes in which there were a few casualties the rebels ran short of ammunition and retired to the outskirts of the city.

American soldiers took posts along the international bridge and after the retirement of the rebels they permitted Americans having business in Juarez to proceed to that section.

EL PASO, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Three private soldiers who revolted from the Juarez garrison were put against an adobe wall at military headquarters at 9:45 a. m. today and shot to death, according to an announcement made at General Mendez headquarters.

A corporal captured the three men.

"Sir, what shall I do with these men?" asked the subordinate officer.

"Shoot them," were the commander's only words.

A squad fired three volleys.

EL PASO, TEXAS, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The Juarez garrison revolted at two o'clock this morning.

Led by Captain Valverde of the 13th battalion, the 150 soldiers stationed in the Mexican city released all prisoners from the city jail, imprisoned their officers and took possession of the town. At three o'clock this morning looting had begun along Calle Comercio, the main street.

Colonel A. E. Spinoza, commanding officer of the battalion which revolted, was prisoner of the rebels in his own quarters. Every other officer of the organization was held by the revolutionists under heavy guard.

Several persons had been wounded in desultory firing by the insurrectionists. It was reported.

Police and customs guards at Juarez, stunned by the sudden rebellion, offered no resistance to the soldiers and released prisoners.

The prisoners among whom were a dozen men held on murder charges, had obtained rifles and ammunition. Their first act was to break into a saloon and seize bottles of liquor.

It was reported that the police were being disarmed by the rebels as fast as they were taken into custody.

Immediately after United States army officials were notified early today that the Mexican garrison in Juarez, across the Rio Grande from here had revolted, preparations were taken to send troop reinforcements to the American side of the international bridge.

J. Mendez, commander of the garrison was cut off from the telegraph office in Juarez by the rebels. He came to the American side of the river in an attempt to get into immediate telegraphic communication with Mexico City.

His messages contained a request that loyal troops be sent to the border town.

Among the prisoners released from the jail were three men who were under life sentences charged with murder. A dozen American women and men were also set free.

Woman "Ponzi" In Pomeroy

POMEROY, O., Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Mrs. Susan Kraus and her husband, George Kraus, a former miner were in the county jail here today on charges of embezzlement and with their arrest officials say will be uncovered the fabrication of a financial scheme that will rival that of Ponzi, the Boston "wizard," who promised big returns for the use of money.

The Krauses were arrested on an affidavit signed by A. W. Lee, noting as agent for Bertha Seffried, who listed a loss of $4,000. Holding out a return of 10 per cent, Mrs. Kraus, it is charged, has borrowed in excess of $300,000 from Pomeroy persons, giving them promissory notes, and paying interest by further notes. According to Lee, Miss Seffried and a sister, loaned the woman $30,000.

For the last month or so, Pomeroy people have been comparing notes and discussing the Kraus case. Attorneys from Pomeroy and Columbus have made investigations, and listed persons who are supposed to have advanced money.

These lists both show liabilities against Mrs. Kraus of more than $200,000.

A week or so ago, Mrs. Kraus was located here and she gave out a statement saying that "everything would be all right."

She is in a hysterical condition in the county jail here.

According to police and attorneys, Mrs. Kraus obtained the money by saying she had a relative in a western city who would invest it, the manner of the investment not being made known, and that interest of 10 per cent and more would be paid. She gave promissory notes at interest times and she is said to have "paid" funds due with further promissory notes.

Ge. Verdict Against Eastman

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—A verdict awarding damages of $23,743.98 against the Photo and Material Company of Atlanta, in its suit against the Eastman Kodak Company, has been handed down in federal district court here after three weeks of deliberation.

The suit, which alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, covered a period from 1910 to 1914, during which the local company claimed the Eastman Kodak Company attempted to put out of business a number of Atlanta photographic supply houses.

No Trace Of Bandits

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—After a day of effort by the police of this city and vicinity, the three bandits who yesterday held up F. T. Schooley, city paymaster, and his assistant, Robert Armstrong, and escaped with $76,204, the September municipal payroll, still were at large today.

Phillip Tuggero and Tony Callahano, owners of the automobile in which the bandits escaped, were detained by detectives.

French Wheat Crop Short

PARIS, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—France's wheat crop for 1922 is more than one-fourth short of last year's production and nearly one-third under the customary annual requirements, according to statistics prepared by the ministry of agriculture and published today. The crop also is insufficient, but oats and barley are more abundant than last year.

Two Killed As Traction Hits Auto

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leonard, of Cleveland, were killed and Daniel Walsh and Mrs. Bertha King, also of Cleveland, were possibly fatally injured late today, when a small touring car in which they were riding, was hit by a limited car on the Lake Shore Electric Railway in Bay Village, 15 miles west of here.

Kemal's Hostile Attitude Closes Door Of Peace

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—British officials admit that the Chanak situation is growing more critical and that the hopes for an amicable settlement are waning.

A rupture between the opposing forces is thought in military quarters is likely to be precipitated at any hour unless the Turks withdraw from the neutral zone.

The Turkish troops continue in close contact with the British. They have formed a screen around the British forces behind which they are making concentrations and reconnoitering.

The British have established a war time censorship. Hereafter the mention of names of regiments, their strength and destinations is prohibited.

WAR APPEARS NEAR

LONDON, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The gravely despondent view held in official quarters here regarding the prospect of avoiding war with the Turks is shared in allied military circles in Constantinople, according to dispatches from the eastern capital to the Associated Press. Mustafa Kemal Pasha's requirement that the British withdraw their troops from Asia Minor, as a condition precedent to a limited retreat of the Ottoman forces from the neutral zone of the straits, is looked upon by local military opinion as closing the door to pacific settlement of the present dispute.

Whether this is the final view of the responsible military heads does not appear. How and when the attempt to enforce the government's demand for the withdrawal of the Kemalists is to be made now lies with Brigadier General Sir Charles Harrington and Vice-admiral Sir Osmond Brock, commanders of the British military and naval forces in the near east, and Sir Horace Rumbold, British high commissioner in Constantinople. The decision is awaited with profound suspense.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Arlene Roe, who lives in East Orange, N. J., is just five years old. She has been taught it is not only improper but dangerous to talk with strangers. Yesterday afternoon while her mother, Mrs. Wm. H. Roe, Jr., was in the yard, Arlene observed a strange man enter the house, take her mother's purse off the mantle and walk out. She ran into the yard and told her mother.

"Why didn't you yell at him?" the mother asked.

"Because I didn't know him," Arlene replied in surprise.

The purse contained $50.

Hearst May Bolt Ticket

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Delegates to the Democratic convention which opened with bitter quarrels and ended in apparent peace, left for their homes today to plan for the fall campaign.

While Alfred E. Smith was nominated for governor unanimously, Democrats were wondering whether W. R. Hearst, who sought the nomination, would support the ticket. In a telegram to his representatives withdrawing his name Mr. Hearst said he would not go on any ticket, "which being reactionary, would be a betrayal of genuine Democracy."

The nominee for United States senator is Dr. Royal S. Copeland, New York City health commissioner, and friend of Mayor Hylan, who was Mr. Hearst's spokesman.

Poulin Found Not Guilty

SOUTH BEND, IND., Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Harry Poulin, local haberdasher, charged by Mrs. Augusta Tiernan with being the father of her third child, was found not guilty in city court here today.

Judge C. L. Ducombe made it plain in his comment that he found the defendant "not guilty" in the strict sense of the word. He said that he believed there had been intimate relations between Mrs. Tiernan and Poulin. The fact, however, that Professor Tiernan had lived with his wife throughout the entire affair created the reasonable doubt that made it legally compulsory to find for the defendant.

Prosecutor Floyd Jellison and Professor Tiernan announced after Judge Ducombe had rendered his opinion, that the case would be appealed and carried to the supreme court of the United States if necessary.

The decision was a great surprise to me," declared Prof. Tiernan. "It swept me completely off my feet."

Military Control For Athens
ATHENS, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Alexander S. Schimis, who was premier when Constantine was expelled from Greece in 1919, has been selected to head the new ministry which is composed of independent Venizelists and military officers.

A favorable impression was created by the proclamation of the revolutionary committee that the arrested political and military leaders shall remain in prison but that the manner of their trial shall be left to the future national assembly.

The revolutionary committee's determination to sit in supervision over the acts of the cabinet until a government founded on the will of the people as expressed by elections, can come into being, seems to be based on the idea that the vital interests of the nation demand such procedure.

Poulin Case

Mrs. Tiernan failed as she was leaving the court room and was taken to her home in a taxicab.

Professor and Mrs. John P. Tiernan will not become reconciled, according to plans announced by the professor today following the decision in the Poulin-Tiernan paternity case in the city court here.

The beginning of a permanent separation will take place late today or Monday when Professor John P. Tiernan will take his wife and three children to Brownsville, Mich., where Mrs. Tiernan will make her home with her mother until she decides upon her future. That Mrs. Tiernan is being allowed by Professor Tiernan to take the three children with her, is due, he said, to his sympathy for his wife. Later it is understood that the children will be placed in a school.

Mrs. Tiernan who failed as she left the court room, is stunned over the decision as is her husband.

"I believe," he said, "that had we disclosed the affairs of our household as they really have been during the last year a different verdict would have been reached."

"We have been in a living hell," he said, but this fact we withheld from the court and public."

Harry Poulin was brief in his statement.

"Just what I expected," he said. He would not make other comment. Mrs. Poulin in a highly nervous state, was unable to make a statement.

The hearing which started September 18, and was completed last Wednesday, was filled with many dramatic moments.

Mrs. Tiernan on the witness stand related how she alleged she came under the influence of Poulin and kept track of him. Poulin also on the witness stand, denied the trysts and maintained, backed by numerous relatives, that on the dates given by Mrs. Tiernan, he was attending to his services with his wife.

The state attempted to break down the alibi on rebuttal by introducing Charles P. Doran, a student at the University of Notre Dame, from Akron, Ohio, who testified that he saw Poulin and a woman at a club, Club Continental at the University. This Poulin denied.

Judge Ducomb pointed out the case was a civil action and the only penalty would be support of the child. "The testimony," he said, "has been of the most sensational here, and has shocked the morals of the court, as well as the entire country, and I regret this incident of my life that it became my painful duty and that I was compelled to give the time in the trial of such a degrading nature."

"It might be well to say at this time that the court is of the opinion that the only real innocent party to the case is the mysterious baby, and who has been foremost in the mind of the court during the entire trial, but in the clamor and cries of the public, the child has almost been forgotten."

Inability To Get Bricklayers Delays Work On High School; Board Meets

Inability to get bricklayers has held up the work on the new addition to the high school according to Architect Albert Pretzinger of Dayton, who appeared before the Board of Education last night when a regular meeting of the board was held at the high school. Mr. Pretzinger stated that the lack of bricklayers would make it impossible to complete the high school addition by January 1st, the date set for the completion. He stated the work progressed under favorable circumstances that the east addition could be completed by December first and that work would then be pushed on the west addition. He explained that transportation and labor difficulties have also held up the work.

He also advised that the present wooden floor in the old gymnasium be torn up and a new composition floor put in its place, having a concrete foundation. He stated that this was the ideal floor for gymnasium since it did away with dampness and that it was used by many colleges and high schools for such purposes and was always found to be most satisfactory.

Blue prints on restaurant equipment for the lunch room were submitted. It was decided that it was best to have the lunch room modern and complete in every detail so as to safeguard the health of the students. The equipment will include a range, steam table, bake oven, cook's table, two drinking fountains, dish tables, refrigerator, work table and thirty feet of counter. The estimate will be submitted at the next meeting which will be held Tuesday, October 10, at one o'clock in the afternoon at the office of the clerk.

Miss Adelaide Preston's application for the position of teacher in the elementary schools was accepted. Her salary will be $1200 per year. Miss Ruth Franklin was also hired at $1800 per year.

Superintendent Appel presented the estimates submitted by Coach McComb on additional equipment for the playgrounds, in the elementary school yards and for work on the high school gym. The totals amounted to $7397.50. The estimates were acted upon favorably and the money necessary for the improvements which will include among other things the building of a smooth surfaced outdoor court for the playing of basketball and other games will be taken from the contingent fund.

H. E. Cochran of the Virginia Appraisal Co., Huntington, was awarded a contract for the appraisal of the valuation of the high and elementary school buildings in Portsmouth. The expense of this work is not to exceed $1000.

The Schmidt-Watkins Co. was awarded the contract for the installation of fire goggles in the school buildings. Their estimate was $196 against the bid of $205 by the General Service Co., the only other bidder. The goggles will be placed in the High School, Lincoln, McKinley and Massie buildings.

It was decided to give Jesse James bus operator $120 per month for the transporting of pupils from the rural districts to and from the high school.

The schedule announced at the meeting last night was $37,704.

Community Chorus Will Organize

Every member of last year's Community Chorus and all who would like to join this musical organization should meet at the Public Library, Gallia street, Monday night at 7 o'clock, when the Chorus will be organized for this winter.

Are Winding Up Pageant Affairs

A meeting of the Pageant Association was held last night at the Chamber of Commerce when the work of checking up on all ticket sales, the turning in of costumes, etc., was reported upon by the different committees. A vote of thanks was given Adam Frick and Ben G. Harris for their idea of the Pageant and all other who assisted in any way in making it such a big success.

President Albert Marting said that the receipts from the Pageant would approximate $10,000 and that the disbursements would run about $500 in excess of that amount.

Director Percy J. Burrell, who had charge of the production of the Pageant and L. S. Pilcher who directed the music, in short talks, expressed their appreciation of the cooperation of Portsmouth people and their pleasure in mingling with the citizens of the city and forming the friendships which the Pageant produced.

Other committees and individuals who were rendered the thanks of the Executive Committee were the costume, music, publicity and other committees, Miss Anna Ross, and those associated with her in the Relief Room; Battery B, the Combat Train, The Boy Scouts; the High School Boys; Rev. Norman W.

Brown, Wm. E. Haley, the Colored Chorus; No. 1 Chorus and others.

Mrs. W. H. Schwartz, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, under whose direction the large army of actors was enlisted, voiced the sentiment of practically the entire committee, when she said that she felt that the Pageant might well be repeated in the course of a few years.

To the manufacturers, who allowed their employees a half holiday to the School Board, who permitted the dismissal of schools at noon on all three days of the Pageant; the thanks and appreciation of the committee were voiced.

Persons who still have Pageant costumes are requested to return them at once.

Any one having bills or accounts against the Pageant Association is also urged to report such at once. P. J. Burrell, director of the Pageant of Portsmouth, will go from here to Knoxville, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Pilcher, who had charge of the music, will go to Birmingham, Ala.

A Real Compliment

One of the finest compliments that has been paid the "Pageant of Portsmouth," is that by Mrs. Ruth Menger Worrell, of Dayton, who is a national authority on pageants. She said yesterday when asked her opinion concerning the local production that she thought it more beautiful and impressive than the famous Plymouth pageant, which was produced at a cost of $200,000. "The thing that appealed to me was that the scenes were so real. The people entered into their parts so splendidly that it made a most impressive spectacle," said Mrs. Worrell. "It was a splendid success in every way, and considering the short time of preparation it was really wonderful."

Mrs. Worrell had her first experience in pageant work at the Centenary pageant in Columbus, where she worked under Mr. Percy J. Burrell, director of the local pageant. She was the author of the Red Cross pageant that was produced in Portsmouth, and took the leading part in it. She also wrote and produced the Pageant at the National Red Cross meeting in Columbus.

Mrs. Worrell is now engaged in preparing a pageant at Pittsburgh for the National meeting of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church. While in Portsmouth to see the local pageant she was the guest of Mrs. J. Frost Davis of Fifth street.

To Try Artificial Wave

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Although the Ohio river is at such a low stage that virtually all traffic between Pittsburgh and Cairo, Ills., a distance of 500 miles, has been abandoned, Colonel C. W. Katz, government engineer, announced today that he was planning to start an artificial wave Monday in order to bring down river level.

"We will try to gather enough water from the pools above the dams in the upper reaches of the river, to float the coal over the low spots," the engineer said.

Mrs. S. L. Green of 2012 Grant street is suffering with a badly gashed left hand. While cleaning peaches she attempted to tighten the lid on a glass jar, and the jar broke, cutting her hand. Dr. George Martin was called to attend her.

The warm weather continues, the mercury climbing to 86 Saturday. The minimum was 43.

Court House

Wife Seeks Divorce

Ida I. Keyes, 712 Fourth street, charged cruelty and neglect in her suit for divorce and equitable relief, instituted in Common Pleas court Saturday against William J. Keyes, formerly of this city, now living in Cincinnati, whom she married in December, 1890.

In her petition filed through Attorneys Blair and Blair the plaintiff says that in 1900 she and the defendant both graduated from the American School of Osteopathy at Kirksville, Missouri, and 4 years later moved to Portsmouth where they have since practiced their profession. She claims. The plaintiff then complains that Keyes for the past several years has cursed and abused her, called her vile, vulgar and indecent names in the presence of their daughter, besides, she declares, he has assaulted her and interfered with her in her practice of her profession and maliciously sought to destroy her practice. Furthermore, she asserts, that for several years the defendant has failed and refused to support her and avers that he has kept up such a constant and systematic course of abuse that she has become sick and nervous and says she is not able to live with him longer as his wife. The wife says she is the owner in her own right of two tracts of land containing 80 acres situated in Harrison township, a house and lot in this city besides household furniture and office equipment in her home at the Fourth street address and she asks that the defendant be divested of all interest in her property.

Dr. Keyes, who was the unsuccessful candidate for mayor in 1910, was said to be in the city today. He filed suit for divorce in the Hamilton county courts for a divorce a few months ago.

Wife Complains of Cruelty

On the grounds of cruelty and abandonment, Rozanna Shaw, 1511 Chillicothe street, seeks divorce and alimony with custody of their three minor children, in a suit filed in Common Pleas court Saturday against Thomas Shaw, laborer, same address, whom she married in November 1911.

In her petition the plaintiff complains that Shaw has made her married life unbearable by constantly cursing and abusing her, besides, she says, that on different occasions he has threatened her life and displays a vicious and hateful disposition. The wife sued through Attorney T. C. Realy.

To Administer Estate

Attorney Arthur H. Rannon has been named by the Probate court to administer the estate of the late Martin B. Wharf, prominent Rarden township farmer, who died in December 1920, leaving personal property valued at a small sum.

Joe Cannon To Hit Same Trail He Did 83 Years Ago

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Uncle Joe Cannon dug into his cedar chest today for some wooten things he will wear next week when he hits same trail westward to Illinois that he and his parents took 83 years ago in emigrating from the hills of North Carolina.

The early voyage westward was made in an old prairie schooner, out of the back of which Uncle Joe, then barely four years old, watched the shifting scenery and dreamed. Even now as he approaches 87, he remembers the nights he played around the camp fire, the hardships and the stars that pecked down at him as he slept.

There was something that resembled a tear in the veteran's eyes as he recalled today his earliest recollections of that trying trip, but they sparkled as he talked of his coming trip over the same old pike—this time in an automobile.

"After March 4 next, I will make my last journey homeward as a member of the house," said Uncle Joe. "So the trip by motor, delayed and delayed, will be made at this time, and on every foot of the road my heart will beat with happiness as I think of the many honors that have come my way. I have decided I had better go now, for March is a long way off, and I am growing old."

Kibble's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Co.

William H. Kibble's production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will appear at the Sun Theatre Monday evening, October 2nd, also giving a special matinee right after school for children.

Mr. Kibble has successfully solved the problem of combining the old and new "Uncle Tom's Cabin" into a big spectacular play that leaves out nothing worth retaining of either the straight method or the circus method. All the worthy features of the old landmarks are retained while the thread of the story has been cleverly reconstructed, making it more coherent. This, with the introduction of a host of high-class specialties thoroughly in keeping with the piece, goes far toward forming an evening's entertainment. It will be a real loss to miss witnessing this production, which is just a little better than one of these ordinary productions. Seat sale now on.

A. J. FULLER, CITY TREASURER, DIES

Andrew J. Fuller, city treasurer, and long one of Portsmouth's most prominent citizens, has passed away, the final summons coming at 11 o'clock Friday night at his family residence, 1145 Fourth street.

Loved ones were at the bedside when Mr. Fuller passed to his final reward. He had been in poor health for several years and suffered several severe attacks which incapacitated him from work for many weeks, but he recovered slowly from them and was eventually able to attend to the affairs of his office. However he suffered a serious attack several days ago and he had been in a precarious condition for more than a week. Few of his legion of friends realized the seriousness of his illness and the news of this city official and splendid citizen's passing came as a shock to them.

Mr. Fuller, who was seventy-four years of age, was serving his third term as treasurer of the City of Portsmouth. He was a prominent thirty-second degree Mason and had held all of the chairs in local Masonry.

He was one of the older Republicans of the city, was a life-long and active member of that political party and had the respect and friendship of thousands who knew him.

He was a member of the Bigelow Methodist Episcopal church, and was for years a member of the Official Board of the church.

Andrew Johnson Fuller was born in Marietta April 18, 1849. His father was Samuel Fuller and his mother Eliza Judd Fuller. Mr. Fuller was educated in the Marietta Public schools and Marietta College, and was a clerk in the post office at Marietta for three years after leaving school.

After traveling in Indiana, he came to Portsmouth in 1874 and located here, engaging in the furniture and undertaking business.

In 1878 he married Miss Mary Smith, who preceded him in death January 17, 1884.

He is survived by one daughter, Miss Mary Margaret Fuller, who was his housekeeper, two sons, Floyd of this city and Gilbert of Columbus, and one brother, O. J. Fuller of Marietta.

Mr. Gilbert Fuller arrived in the city last night and was with his father when the end came. O. J. Fuller arrived today.

To a host of friends the news of Mr. Fuller's death will come as a great sorrow. His kindly disposition had not only won for him the respect of all who knew him intimately but of the thousands who did business with him as he transacted the affairs of his office.

Few men in Portsmouth had made friends and kept them as had Mr. Fuller and few will be missed as he. He was always obliging and courteous in his office and was re-elected by handsome majorities. He was progressive, conscientious, a dutiful husband and indulgent father and was of the type of citizens that any community can ill afford to lose.

Funeral services will be held from Bigelow M. E. church Monday afternoon at two o'clock, with Rev. C. E. Chandler conducting the last rites. The Knights Templar will have charge of the funeral services and burial rites in Greenlawn.

Sultan Says He Will Not Abdicate

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—In a letter to an intimate friend, the sultan, reports of whose abdication have been in circulation, declares he will not abdicate.

"I shall continue to discharge my holy duties until the end," he wrote. "When the nationalists enter Constantinople I shall have something pertinent to say to them. I have done what I believed was to the interests of my country and my people. I have made mistakes, but they were human. The nationalist admit I have been kept a prisoner in Constantinople. Therefore how can I be responsible for the adversity of my people?"

The palace officials say the sultan is firmly resolved to retain his throne. However, should he be forced to abdicate he will be permitted to remain on Turkish soil it is understood. It is suggested he be given one of the numerous palaces on the Bosphorus, in one of which his brother the late Sultan Abdul Hammed died.

Clue In Dual Murder Case

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Investigators seeking solution of the mysterious slaying two weeks ago of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and his choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor H. They refused to disclose the nature of the clue, stating however, that it pointed to a man not yet mentioned in connection with the case. His identity, they said, would be kept secret until he was in custody.

Meanwhile, preparations were being made for examination of the body of Rev. Hall from Greenwood cemetery, King county, New York. It was announced that the order for exhumation had been sent last night to Supreme Court Justice Wassor Ogil, for his signature and that he was expected to forward it to the authorities here today.

SOCIETY

Occupying a prominent place in this week's social calendar, and considered to be one of the prettiest parties of the season, was the charming reception given this afternoon by Mrs. Robert S. Kyle at her handsome home, 1719 Hutchins street.

A profusion of autumn flowers, dahlias, golden-rod, asters and chrysanthemums decorated the rooms, artistic baskets and bowls of these lovely blooms filling the various spaces. At the hospitable portals stood little Miss Martha Peebles, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Peebles, who admitted the guests.

Mrs. Kyle graciously received the callers and made them feel delighted at home. Assisting her in dispensing hospitality in the large drawing room, were Mrs. Harry E. Taylor, Mrs. Noah J. Dwyer and Mrs. Charles D. Seader. Doing honors in the dining room were Mrs. John C. Jackson, mother of the hostess, who presided at the coffee urn, Mrs. William R. Sprague and Mrs. Joseph B. Peebles, who passed the refreshment plates.

The table was set with a handsome silver lace cover, with a silver basket filled with varicolored flowers occupying the center. Silver dishes also held dainty bouquets and mints.

Over eighty society matrons and maids called during the reception hours. Their costumes were very modish and beautiful and the afternoon was one of happy informality and thoroughly enjoyed by those fortunate enough to be present.

One of the most interesting features of the evening was a mock wedding. The lovely young bride was Miss Ruth Hopkins, Elmer Huggins made a very charming groom, while Dorothy West successfully played the part of the minister.

Frances Clausen was the best man and Josephine Brown the maid of honor. Gladys McGraw played the part of the dainty little flower girl. The bridal party entered the room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Clara Nunnemaker. During the ceremony she played "Love You Truly" and other appropriate selections.

Guests for the evening included Miss Josephine Brown of Sciotoville and Miss Frances Clausen.

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS DARTON

"SWISH! Swizz! Swamp! Nancy and Nick skidded right across the road and stuck fast in a muddy ditch.

And after that the magic automobile wouldn't move an inch.

Nick turned the knob on the whirling gear between the jagged crank and the thingamabob this way and that, and did everything he knew (which wasn't much, to tell the truth), but it was of no use.

"Oh, I know what to do," cried Nancy all at once. "Don't you remember, Nick? All we have to do is to say the magic words the Green Wizard told us. I'll say them now. So she began.

"Magic auto, don't be slow, Nick and I must really go."

But the auto only shivered and stood still.

So she tried again:

Magic auto, please to hurry.

Or the Fairy Queen will surely worry."

But never a word did it make.

"Oh, goodness!" said Nancy, but she tried a third time:

"Magic auto, spit and splutter. And get us out of this old gutter."

But the only reply was a faint whirr, as though the poor thing was trying to tell that it was all no use. It couldn't move at all!

The trouble was this, my dears: Up in the sky in Elmer-Glad Land, Light Fingers and Comet-Legs, two bad fairies, had dumped a barrel of magic rain down on the earth. That's why the Twins skidded and why the magic automobile couldn't go.

"Oh, my goodness, look at that!" laughed Comet-Legs, peeping down out of the sky. "We'll get that automobile yet."

Letters From Our Readers

Editor Daily Times:—We wish you would publish this as a special notice to Council.

The property owners on Gallia street and Mahert Road, near the Garfield school, have asked the city several times to make some arrangement to take care of the water that is flooding their yards and cellars. Unless some action is taken to afford relief from this nuisance, which causes damage, there will probably be several damage suits against the city for destruction of property. Every time it rains water overflows the sewers, stands in the street, stopping automobile and street car traffic, besides leaving mud on sidewalks and yards, that make them almost impassible. Attention of the Board of Health has also been called to this matter. The condition is most unhealthy and unpleasant to families living in that vicinity. BEGIN HERE TODAY

The reformed crackman.

MICHAEL LANYARD, known to the police as the LONE WOLF, is attempting to recover the stolen jewels of

EVE DE MONTALAI, the woman

he loves.

Lanyard, who met Eve in southern France, where he rescued her from robbery at the hands of the brutal Parisian Apache,

DUPONT, believes that the jewels were stolen by a motoring party consisting of the American,

WHITAKER MONK, his secretary,

PHINUIT, the latter's brother,

JULES, and the

COUNT AND COUNTESS DE

LORGNES.

De Lorgnes is murdered by Dupont. Later, in Paris, Lanyard finds the countess, learns that her real name is

LIANE DELORME, and enters her house to discover the jewels. He finds her being throttled to death by Dupont.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

Monk turned the keys, but all at once forgot his purpose and cocked his ears attentively to rumors of excitement and confusion on the deck.

The instinct of the seafaring man uppermost, Monk stiffened, grew rigid from head to foot.

One heard hurried feet, outcries,

a sudden jangle in the engine-room, telephraph....

"Monsieur, monsieur!" Liane implored. "Open the hatch!"

The words came on her lips when she was thrown off her feet by a frigid shock which stopped the sybilite dead in full career. The woman cannoned against Monk, shouldering him bodily aside.

Instinctively snatching at the box,

Monk succeeded only in dragging it to the edge of the deck before a second shock seemed to make the yacht leap like a live thing stricken mortally.

The dispatch-box went to the floor,

Liane Delorme was proloped headlong into a corner. Monk thrown to his knees, Phinuit lifted out of his chair and flung sprawling into the arms of Lanyard, who retained sufficient presence of mind to discern Phinuit before that one guessed what he was about.

Of a sudden the engines ceased, and there was no more movement of any sort.

Lanyard had no means to measure

how long that dumb suspense lasted.

It seemed interminable. Eventually he saw Monk pick himself up and dash out.

As if he had only needed that vision of action to animate him, Lanyard threw Phinuit off, so that he staggered under the threat of his own pistol in Lanyard's hands. He lingered for a moment, then apparently realizing his danger, faded away into the saloon.

With a roughness dictated by the desperate extremity, Lanyard strode over to Liane Delorme, fairly jerk-ing her to her feet, and thrust her stumbling into the saloon. Closing the door behind her, he shot his bolts.

He went to work swiftly then, in a fever haste.

Stripping off coat and waistcoat,

he took from the pocket of the latter the wallet that held his papers, then ripped open his shirt and unbuckled the money belt around his waist. His pockets were ample and fitted with trustworthy fastenings; and all but one, that held a few English sovereigns, were empty. The jewels of Madame de Montalais went into them as rapidly as his fingers could move.

Thus engaged, he heard a pistol explode in the saloon, and saw the polished writing-table of the captain's desk scored by a bullet. A stream of bullets followed, one after another borne the stout panels as if their consistency had been that of cheese.

Lanyard stepped out of their path and hugged the partition while he finished stuffing the jewels into the belt and, placing the thin wallet beneath it, strapped it tightly round him once more.

Lanyard edged along the partition to the door, calculated the stand of the lunatic in the saloon from the angle at which the bullets were coming through, and emptied the pistol he had taken from Phinuit at the panels as fast as he could pull the trigger.

There was no more firing.

He tossed aside the empty weapon, made sure of Phinuit's on his hip, approached one of the deadlights, placed a chair, climbed upon it, and with infinite pains managed to wrig-gle and squirm head and shoulders through the opening.

After that he had to work his way round, inch by inch, until it seemed possible to drop into the sea and escape hitting the waves.

Ten minutes later the fingers of one hand—was swimming on his side—at the bottom of his stroke reached pebbles.

He lowered his feet and waded through extensive shallows to a wide and sandy beach.

CHAPTER XXII

Finis

THE window in his suite at the Walpole commanded a southward vista of Fifth avenue whose enchantment was so potent that Lanyard, on the first day of his tenancy, thought it could never tire.

Yet by noon of the third he was viewing it with the eyes of soul-destroying ennui.

Three days before, immediately on arriving, he had cabled Eve de Montalais.

"Mission successful," he had wired —returning France by La Savioie in five days, having arranged safe transportation your property—please advice if you can meet me in Paris to receive same on your commands otherwise."

And to this, silence only!

When the telephone dial ring—toward noon of that third day, he fairly stumbled over himself in his haste to reach the instrument.

"Yes, yes, at once."

His eyes flew into the room with cheerfulness of men, Liane Delorme first, then Monk, then Phinuit, rather bleached of color and wearing an air in a slink; all very smart in clothes—conspicuously new and costly as the avenue afforded, striking figures of contentment in prosperity.

"It is a pleasure indeed," Lanyard gravely acknowledged their several salutations.

"Be that as it may," said Phinuit

—here in the happy family reunited and ready to talk business."

"And no hard feelings, Monsieur Phinuit?"

"We don't want to pull any rough stuff on you, Lanyard."

"Rough stuff, monsieur? You mean physical force?"

"Not exactly. I've got a couple of friends of mine from Headquarters waiting downstairs; this very minute, ready and willing to cop out the honor of putting the Lone Wolf

under arrest for stealing the Mon-talais jewels."

"But is it possible," Lanyard protested, "you still believe I am a thief at heart and interested in those jewels only to turn them to my own profit?"

He stared unbelievably at the frosty eyes of Monk beneath their fatuously stubborn brows, at the hard, unyielding eyes of Phinuit.

"My God," Lanyard pronounced in comic despair—"it passes understanding!"

Most Human Ills Originate In The Stomach

SCIENTISTS agree that the stomach is responsible for at least 80% of all human ills.

Indigestion is a direct result of a disordered stomach.

A torpid liver, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, dizzy spells, backache, nervousness, headache, constipation, rheumatism and that tired-out, run-down, worn-out feeling are also in most cases caused by stomach troubles.

Tanlac, the world's greatest medicine, is designed to tone up the stomach so you will eat better, sleep better, feel better and work better.

That Tanlac does this is proven beyond question by the statement of hundreds of thousands who have taken it. Go to your nearest druggist.

Take Tanlac

"Now I in my turn, have the honor to inform you that I have had relays of detectives waiting in this hotel day and night, with instructions to guard the doors as soon as you were shown up to my rooms."

"He's lying," Monk insisted, putting a restraining hand on Phinuit's arm.

Lanyard crossed rapidly to the hall door and flung it open—and fell back a pace with a cry of amazement.

"Madame!" Lanyard gasped—

"Madame de Montalais!"

She entered with a gladness in her face that was carried out by the lupine gesture with which she gave him her hands.

"One is sure madame must be mistaken."

"Ah, but I am not!" said Eve de Montalais. "Who should know better the signs that tell of woman's love for you, my dear?"

My dear friend," she cried happily—"I am so glad! And to think we have been guests of the same hotel for these five long days and never knew it. I arrived by La

Touraine Saturday, but your message, telegraphed back from Lumbedoune, reached me not five minutes ago. I telephoned the desk, they told me the number of your room—and here I am!"

"But I cannot believe my senses!"

With unfeigned consent, Phinuit and Monk arose and made for the door, only to find it blocked by a substantial form.

"Steady, gentle!" he counseled coolly. "Orders are to let everybody in and nobody out."

For a moment they hung in doubt and consternation consulting one another with dismayed stares.

Grasping the situation, Eve de

Montalais turned to the quartet eyes that glimmered in a face otherwise quite composed.

YANKS AGAIN LOSE; ST. LOUIS BEATS WHITE SOX AND STILL HAVE CHANCE TO TIE YANKS

Reds Sure Of Third Place

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The mathematical uncertainty in the American league pennant race existed today with but two games left on the schedule of each of the contenders, New York and St. Louis.

Inability of the Yankees for the second straight day to hit the offerings of a former teammate—this time Jack Quinn—cost them another reverse yesterday at the hands of the Red Sox, 1 to 0, and a chance to clinch the championship. The Browns meanwhile, clinging to the possibility that they may tie the leaders and that they may tie the leaders and that they may tie the leaders.

Although favored by all odds to emerge the victors, the Yankees have caused something bordering on apprehension among their followers by a sudden slump in hitting, with the penultimate day to sight. In the last three games—one with Cleveland and two with Boston—the team has scored but one run and collected fourteen hits.

Up against the club's heaviest arms, Shawkey and Bush. The former held Cleveland to three runs and Boston to one today while Bush lost a 3-1 verdict Thursday.

Great followers meanwhile were concerned over reports that Frank Felsch and Dave Bancroft, infield batsmen sustained sprained ankles in an exhibition game in Baltimore. Neither mishap, however, was said to be serious although it is likely that Bancroft will refrain from taking chances by remaining on the sidelines today and tomorrow.

The National league champions are scheduled for a double header today with the Boston Braves.

Eddie Rempel, Connie Mack's pitching star, pitched only one inning in the first game of a double header with Washington yesterday but it was enough to get credit for his twenty-sixth victory of the season. The score was 4 to 3 in 12 innings. The Athletics won the second contest also 8 to 4.

Cincinnati, although idle, was practically assured of at least third place in the National league when Osborn of Chicago blanked St. Louis 3 to 0, allowing but two hits. The Reds hold a margin of a game and a half over the Cardinals and are within a game of Pittsburgh in second place.

AMERICAN GO TO IT, RED SOX!

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—Boston again defeated the league-leading New York Yankees Friday. Jack Quinn, former Yankee pitcher, held the visitors to five hits and had the better of Bob Shawkey in a sensational play of 1 to 0 game. As the St. Louis Browns won their game today with Chicago, the pennant issue in the American league remains undecided. To clinch the flag the Yankees must win a game or the Browns lose one. The winning run was scored in the sixth on John Collins' double to right center. Mitchell's sacrifice hit drove the third base line and Ruel's drive which Scott managed to knock down, scored Collins as Scott threw out Ruel. Bob Mousel then struck out with men on second and third and two out. Ruel's single hit was a hint with one out and none on in the sixth. Score:

WIN TWO
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—Philadelphia took both ends of a double header from Washington Friday winning the first game in twelve innings, 4 to 3 and the second 8 to 4. The first game was a pitchers' battle between Ogden and Erickson and the former gave way to Kimmel in the 12th, who won his 20th victory of the season.

Bellheart was driven from the mound in the second contest. Hasty had it easy after the third inning. Score—First Game:

JUNIORS PLAY GREENUP ELEVEN HERE SUNDAY

Tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, on the Industrial League field, the Smoke House Juniors will play their second greenup battle of the season by meeting the Greenup Ovals, an eleven that the Juniors failed to bring to Portsmouth last year.

Several efforts to have the Greenup eleven perform here failed, but they telephoned Friday that they would be here Sunday afternoon, with a well organized team, one that would give the Juniors a real battle.

The Juniors will present a dirty appearance in their uniforms of blue and white. This will be the first time they have been worn, and the team will endeavor to infatuate them with a victory. The Juniors have held several workouts this week and have ironed out the weak spots uncovered in last Sunday's game with the Ashland eleven.

The lineup this Sunday will be the same as last week with Webber and Gould starting at the halfback positions with Woods at fullback and "Pepper" Schreckel at quarter. Smith will perform at center, with Hurns and Halbert on the extreme flank positions. Reiser and Lachner, guards, will be mated with Cropper and Bertram tackles. Caplain (Cheever) and Reiser are the sub halves and backfield men with several good linemen waiting to break into the game.

Tickets for the game are already on sale and are going rapidly. Another good sale like last week will allow the Juniors to bring teams here from more distant cities for a big ticket sale will show that the fans mean to support the team this season.

Hornsby And Sisler The Leaders

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—(By The Associated Press)—Down comes the curtain on the major league season tomorrow with George Sisler of the St. Louis Browns leading champion of the American league, Rogers Hornsby, of the St. Louis Cardinals, champion of the National league and Hornsby also the conqueror of the mighty "Babe" Ruth for the 1922 honors in home run hitting.

Sisler, acclaimed the most valuable player in the American league, and the slugging Hornsby both will finish the season with an average above the coveted .400 mark, as the latest figures show Sisler hitting .417, and Hornsby whaling away to the tune of .400. With the final games scheduled for tomorrow, these St. Louis rivals will have an opportunity to better these figures, which include games of Wednesday.

IMPROVING THE TIMES

IN accordance with its policy of giving the people of Portsmouth and South Central Ohio all the news all the time, The Times has closed a contract by which, in addition to the splendid service of the Associated Press it will also receive the leased wire service of the United Press, the great rival of the Associated Press in the telegraphic field. The United Press service will begin Monday, October second.

In this connection the circulation of The Times is steadily growing without effort at solicitation. On Friday, September 29th, the gross circulation of The Times was 14,135. On the corresponding day, September 29th, 1921, the circulation was 12,835, showing a net gain of 1,310. It is honest growth, no premiums, no corps of solicitors, just steady increase.

The Morning Sun, like all new papers, is feeling its way and finding its field. It is more than a year ahead of what we anticipated when the paper was first issued, nearly two years ago. Its circulation is growing, and it is holding its readers. We are prepared to guarantee more than 3,500 net circulation for the Morning Sun and more than 11,000 circulation for the Sunday Sun. The Morning Sun is building up a splendid list on the rural routes, reaching people who do not take The Times, owing to delay in deliveries. During the next few weeks extensive improvements will take place in The Sun, its probationary period having passed, in our judgment. During the next year a complete separate newspaper plant will be established for The Morning and Sunday Sun, and they will be published from their own building.

THE EX-KAISER'S MARRIAGE

THE official announcement of the approaching marriage of the former kaiser to Princess Herminie von Schoenai-Carolath has only caused a mild movement of curiosity throughout the world. The mediocre interest taken in the event gives the measure of the extent to which the former ruler of Germany has politically become a "back number." A few ultraconservatives among the Prussian royalists are declared to be perturbed at the decision of the exile of Doorn, as they maintain that such a mesalliance as his union with a member of an obscure princely house will render his return to the throne impossible.

As there are many and much more important reasons why William II should not return to his throne, he need hardly worry about the political aspect of his forthcoming marriage. It is quite possible that the fact that this union renders his return to power out of the question is precisely the reason why a large section of the German monarchist party approves it. They will now be finally rid of his possible candidature in case of a monarchist restoration. Up to the present the former kaiser was a millstone round the neck of the German monarchist party. As partisans of the theory of the divine right of kings, as long as he officially maintained his claim to the crown they could not dispute it, in spite of the fact that the deep disfavor which he was held by the mass of Germans rendered the success of his candidature hopeless. By contracting such a marriage the former kaiser, by imputation, abandons his claim to the throne, as by German law the woman he is about to marry could never share it with him.

Another section of the monarchist party which is said to be completely reconciled to the marriage is that from which the so-called "service of honor" at Doorn was drawn. In order to maintain the royalist idea, a miniature court was formed there, with chamberlains, aids-de-camp and other court officials, who voluntarily furnished their services. It would appear, however, that the atmosphere of this miniature court was so deadly dull that these volunteer officials were bored to extinction. Exile has not had the result of making William of Hohenzollern any more amiable or one whit less autocratic than he was as ruler. These partisans are therefore delighted at the prospect of being relieved from further service at Doorn castle and escaping the necessity of making any further pilgrimages to what has been up to now the mecca of Prussian reaction.

NINETY MILLIONS A YEAR

AS one result of its nation-wide investigation concerning the sale of gasoline, the National Motorists' Association declares that the public is cheated out of $90,000,000 a year. The short measure discovered amounts to one quart of gasoline to every five gallons sold, and the shortage results from the imperfect mechanism of the pumps through which the greater portion of gasoline is served. It goes without saying that there are $90,000,000 that should not be added to the already high cost of motoring.

The federal government and the majority of state governments have enacted laws fixing standard measures. These laws apply to almost every commodity that is sold by measure. To insure full measure periodical inspection is made. The laws, however, do not apply to gasoline pumps. The National Motorists' Association will seek legislation to secure full measure and periodical inspection to maintain it. To do so they will go to both congress and the legislatures of the several states.

The more girls there are who do not know how to keep house, the more restaurants there will be to raise their prices.

That "delicate scientific instrument" at Jackson, Calif., which pronounced all the entombed miners alive can now be junked.

New York theatrical producers say they will ban all thread-bare jokes. Why don't they begin with that one?

The parent who used to bother about son's going to the dogs now worries about daughter's going with the tea hounds.

Former kaiser, in announcing his engagement to a widow with five children, seems thus to acknowledge that he deserves some punishment.

The one woman missionary left in Suva has a glowing lecture field before her.

Suspenders are coming back with a rush, a haberdasher states. They hold up the hip pocket.

The artists who draw the fashion pictures draw mostly on their imagination.

Those Balkan clouds are already bigger than a man's head.

Possibly it was the restaurant prices that roused the Turks to drive out the Greeks.

"Was the armistice premature?" is being discussed again. Germans think it wasn't.

"What is humor?" is being discussed. Evidently some professional humorist would like to know.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—At noon we sighted Long Beach and shortly after passed Ambrose lightship. At 1:30 p.m. the Aquatania anchored to await the health officers who came out in a tug. They did not inspect the passengers traveling first class, but took one man from the steerage.

The bar closed at the three mile limit without any waiting or gnashing of teeth. Bilingual passengers accepted the inevitable. Somehow there was little demonstration at the sight of Miss Liberty. A few removed their hats, but that was all. The ship sailed up the North River with the usual tooting of sirens that welcomes each liner. Slipping into the pier in New York requires masterly seamanship. A flock of valet's little ings attached themselves fore and aft and turned the huge liner around.

A mis-calculation of five feet means heavy damage. The officer at the bow of the boat relayed the directions to the captain by megaphones. It was noticed that the megaphone nearest the captain used the differential "Sir" in addressing his superior.

Hundreds of faces were at the pier rails shouting their welcomes. I saw my top-eared dog howling like a lost soul in the midst of the confusion. And the little rascal broke pier regulations by dashing over the gangplank to the ship.

Passing customs at New York is a dreary routine. Passengers must wait until their luggage is assembled in alphabetical order and then stand in line with their declaration to get the service of an inspector. The second and third class passengers must remain aboard all night.

The customs officers in New York leave nothing to the imagination. They search each piece of baggage with scrupulous care but are courteous and obliging. But it does not take one's idea of liberty to have his luggage so thoroughly ransacked. One lady next to me did not want to open a small bundle. She was told she must and she had to reveal a delicately pink and ribbon faced set of what you may call, blushing furiously all the while.

The obscure actress who was traveling incognito left the ship heavily swathed in veils, which aroused the interest of the ship news hounds who surrounded her. And that, I imagine, is just the effect the lady wished to achieve. When I last saw her she was passing out photographs to the gentlemen of the press.

I hold no brief for the prohibition law, yet it strikes me that it is the will of the people it is but sportsmanship to bring contraband liquor into the United States. Any number of men left the boat with bulging hips, knowing that the custom officers rarely search the person. The same men would be hurried over cheating at cards or golf.

There is nothing in the world so gloomy as a deserted ship. A tomb

The Marines

A wall in Southern China, wide and dim,
Hoarse voices lifting in chaotic cries;
The drift of battle smoke on eastern rim,
And Stars and Stripes beneath exotic skies.

The sea washed Philippines, with am-lashed
In steaming forests by the Moro bands;

The crack of rifles in the midnight raid,
And treks across the mismatched lands.

Long isolation on the Haitian shore,
Guerrilla warfare in old Mexico;
And then in answer to Tuetonic roar
They crossed the main when France was stricken low.

Now do they sweep to duties new and strong,
On street and rail where bandit peril looms;
With ready rifle swung afar they range
To guard the mails—United States Marines.

A Power

A kindly looking old gentleman was stopped by a very little girl carrying a parcel.

"Please, sir," she said politely, "is this the second turning to the left?"

Far From Regular

It was probably the most conservative community in New England. A stranger by the name of Wilkinson had come there and set up shop and, although he seemed a good business man, his neighbors viewed him with a certain amount of distrust.

"That man, Wilkinson," declared one, "ought to be expelled from our chamber of commerce and ostracized besides. He's too darned radical."

"In what way?" queried a second.
"Well, for one thing, he won't concede that every strike is a Bolshevik movement."

Wise Jottings

The essence of power lies in the reserve.

Even the deaf man is able to hear money when it talks.

Sometimes it is hard to forgive our friends for our loneliness.

A successful poet is one who is able to earn a living at something else. Gentlemen are necessarily concealed because a gentleman never forgets himself.

Why is it that an ordinarily level-headed man can't resist making silly speeches when a girl in the legitimate discharge of her duties comes in his way?

IF YOU ARE WELL LIBRED

YOU know home life is much more pleasant if certain ceremonies and formalities are observed.

Dressing for dinner does not imply donning evening clothes, but members of the family should appear at the table neatly attired and carefully groomed.

It is most important that small children should be taught to "tidy up" before appearing for any meal.
